

January Events

Habit # 6: Synergize

The exercise of all the other habits prepares us for the habit of synergy. Synergy is when the whole is greater than the sum of its parts. Valuing the differences is the essence of synergy. The mental, the emotional, the psychological differences between people.

The truly effective person has the humility and reverence to recognize his own perceptual limitations and to realize the rich resources available through interaction with the hearts and minds of other people.

You can sidestep negative energy. You can look for the good in others. You can express ideas, feelings, and experiences in a way that will encourage others to be open also.
