

Hurricane Ian Update #2: 09-27-22, 10:30 am

This message is for all PBA Families. Palm Bay Academy has been closely monitoring Hurricane Ian's progress. The track of the storm continues to move eastward. Forecast models predict hurricane force wind gusts will impact Central Florida early Wednesday morning with possible strong bands beforehand. Brevard County Public Schools and Palm Bay Academy will be closed Wednesday and Thursday with all after school events cancelled. A decision concerning school on Friday is dependent upon storm speed and predicted conditions in future forecasts. As Brevard Public Schools releases updates, we will keep you informed. Thank you and stay safe.
